Welcome to McKinley Toastmasters, a club where you can improve your speaking and leadership skills.

The meeting will run for 1 hour.

We'll start with a table topics session with the Table topics master being Ben Masters.

We have two speeches tonight. The speeches are the most important part of this meeting.

From the speeches will follow an evaluation session. Finally, we'll end on a light note with a bit of humour.

At the end of the meeting, we'll invite our guests to stand up to tell about themselves.

First, I'd like to call on Ben Masters to do our table topics session.
Ben is a PhD in nuclear engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana

Ben? [<shake hands>]

Thanks Ben for those enlightening table topics.

We'll now proceed to our prepared speeches.

Our first speaker tonight is JaeUn Ku. JaeUn is a software engineer working on ...

In her speech, she will give a briefing on work on WAI-ARIA, an effort to bring the world wide web technology to everyone in the world. Jae Un will give a speech based on the project from an experienced manual entitled Technical Presentations. JaeUn will have 8-10 minutes for her speech.

With her speech is titled What is WAI-ARIA? World wide web for everybody, please give a round of applause for JaeUn.

Thanks Jae Un for that informative speech.

Now, we'll take two minutes to evaluate Jae Un's speech.

Our second speaker is Brian Lennell. JaeUn is in law working on...

In his speech, Brian will tell us about ... Brian will give a speech based on the project 2 ( ) from the Competent Communicator manual. Brian will have 5 to 7 minutes for his speech.

With his speech is titled " ", please give a round of applause for Brian.

Thanks Brian for that wonderful speech.

Please take a minute to evaluate Brian's speech.

We will now proceed to the evaluation portion of this meeting. The evaluation is integral to a Toastmaster's meeting because it allows our presenters to learn about what we could improve on, as well as increase confidence with what we did well on. We'll first hear the evaluation of the speeches, given by Elon and SpeechEvaluatorX2. We'll then hear from our timer and grammarian, Josh and Yi. Finally, we'll hear about how the meeting was run as a whole from our evaluator, Tony Audreth.

Elon, would you please give us your evaluation of JaeUn's speech?

Thanks Elon.

SpeechEvaluatorX2, would you please give us your evaluation of Brian's speech?

Thanks SpeechEvaluatorX2.

Josh, would you please give us your report of timings of the presenters tonight?

Thanks, Josh.

Yi, would you please give us your report of the grammar usage for the presenters tonight?

Thanks, Yi.

Tony, would you please give us your evaluation of the meeting as a whole?

Thanks, Tony.

We will now close the meeting on a light note. Please give a hand for our humourist for the evening, Rosalin.

Thanks Rosalin.

I'd now like to call on the guests to stand up tell what brought you here to Toastmaster's meeting tonight, and what you hope to get out of the club.
